

Moore Named Vice President of Oconee State Bank.

WATKINSVILLE, October 1, 2018 – Oconee State Bank announces that Jason Moore has been named Vice President.

Jason is a graduate of Valdosta State University with a degree in Accounting. He joined OSB in December 2015, as Assistant Vice President Credit Analyst, with 11 years of prior banking, lending, and credit experience. Jason has been integral in the development of our Credit function and he is a valuable part of our team efforts every day to ensure we, as a bank, are making sound credit decisions, while also enabling our bank to meet the creditworthy needs of our customers and prospects. Jason lives in Watkinsville with his wife, Sarah. They have two dogs and enjoy local dining, UGA sporting events, and beach vacations.

“I am honored to be recognized for the work that I have accomplished here at the bank and am grateful for the support team members around me. I look forward to working many more years here at Oconee State Bank”, said Moore.
