

Leach Named Vice President & Controller of Oconee State Bank.

WATKINSVILLE, June 13, 2018 – Oconee State Bank announces that Janet Leach has been named Vice President & Controller of Oconee State Bank.

Janet is a graduate of Mercer University with a degree in Business Administration/Accounting. She has been in banking for 22 years, most recently spending 9 years as Controller of The National Bank of Georgia in Athens. Janet is a Graduate of Distinction from Georgia Banking School at the University of Georgia, and currently serves on the Board of Directors for Georgia Banking School. She has two grown children, Kyle and Rachel, who recently graduated from College and are now working in Atlanta and Nashville. Janet and her husband, Keith, enjoy visiting them often and also love frequent trips to the beach! "I'm very blessed to now be a part of Oconee State Bank as Controller", said Leach.

Since the doors of the Main Street office first opened in 1960, Oconee State Bank has proudly served the local community providing an unparalleled commitment to personalized service, value-added products, and a deep sense of responsibility to its customers, shareholders and community. With over 57 years of service, Oconee State Bank is the only locally owned and operated community bank in Oconee County.